

SPCA CINCINNATI

150TH ANNIVERSARY

GIVING CIRCLE

In honor of the SPCA Cincinnati's 150th anniversary in 2023, we're seeking 15 passionate people to form our 150th Anniversary Giving Circle and make a lasting impact in the animal welfare community. After committing $5,000 each, participants will allocate their collective contribution to help fund some of the organization's biggest upcoming needs.

Our Chow Now Pantry provides pet food to at-risk individuals and families. Shelter2Shelter transports animals between shelters when specialized care or space is needed. The Veteran Initiative provides free pet adoptions and support to veterans. Humane Education reaches children in schools and groups. Our Medical Care team is ready to act in special circumstances.

Become part of this special Giving Circle and make a lasting impact!
Please visit SPCACINCINNATI.ORG for more information to join and be recognized.

BRADSTREET GIVING PROGRAM

BECOME PART OF A LEGACY OF COMPASSION AND ADVOCACY THROUGH THE DONOR COLLAR SOCIETIES AND 150TH ANNIVERSARY GIVING CIRCLE

The Bradstreet Giving Program is a select group of donors supporting the SPCA Cincinnati. For more information, go to spcacincinnati.org.

In 1873, a small group of citizens in Cincinnati were concerned about the cruelty against animals they saw around them; they went on to form what is now the SPCA Cincinnati.

One of these founders was E.P. Bradstreet, a prominent attorney who served as counsel to the first Board of Trustees of the SPCA Cincinnati. Bradstreet's service extended for over 40 years.

As a Trustee, Bradstreet helped shape Ohio laws against animal cruelty and aided in establishing humane societies in every Ohio county. As President, he oversaw incorporation of the organization in 1907.

Generous with his time, talent, and financial resources, Bradstreet represented the spirit of Cincinnati, which is now home to one of America's leading humane societies. His name is carried forth in our Bradstreet Giving Program.

This year we're celebrating 150 years of service to the Greater Cincinnati community, and it's because of compassionate people like E.P. Bradstreet — and you! Give today and join a special group of supporters dedicated to making a difference for all animals in Cincinnati.
